THE EARLY INGLESIDE STAKES.

Horsemen at Ideal Park, Latonia, Windsor, St. Louis and in the East should not overlook the fact that the stakes of the San Francisco Pacific Jockey Club, operating the noble Ingleside track, all close next Thursday, October 15. There are eleven of them, worth $30,500. The Ingleside meeting opens Wednesday, October 28. The Stake conditions are displayed on the last page of DAILY RACING FORM. The Stakes are as follows:

Spreckels Cup, handicap, for 3-year-olds, to be run during April, 1897, $5,700, one and a quarter miles; California Derby, three-year-olds, $5,000, one and a quarter miles; California Oaks, three-year-old fillies, one and one-eighth miles, $2,500; Ingleside Stakes, three-year-olds and upward, $4,000, four miles; California Stakes, three-year-olds and upward, hurdle race, two miles, $1,500; Palace Hotel Stakes, two-year-old fillies, three-quarters of a mile, $1,300; G. H. Mumm & Co. Stakes, two-year-old colts and geldings, three-quarters of a mile, $1,300; Pommery Sec Stakes, two-year-olds, seven-eighths of a mile, $1,300; Tarpey Stakes, three-year-olds and upward, one and one-eighth miles, $1,300; Crocker Stakes, two-year-olds, half a mile, $1,000 added; Hobart Stakes, three-year-olds and upward, one and one-sixteenth miles, $1,500. All of the above have guaranteed values, save the Crocker Stakes, Entries close Thursday and should be addressed to W. S. Leake, Secretary, Parlors A and B, Palace Hotel, San Francisco, Cal.

CAUFIELD DISQUALIFIED.

That regular rogue, Caufield, swerved in his Ideal Park race yesterday and it cost his owners and backers a lot of money. He was against a fast lot in the last event and was running easily on the stretch turn. But when he tired he bore in as usual, almost throwing three horses over the fence. He came on again and won quite handsly, but the swerve was plainly a foul and Caufield was disqualified.

The decision was just, but a bit out of line with the ruling Col. Clark made Sept. 23, when bets were declared off and Morgan suspended for riding the Foster horse.

The racing was sharp and in the ring's favor, only one favorite, Newhouse, winning.

WAS FANTINE TARENTUM?

It turns out that Fantine, who won at Ideal Park Monday, is really Tarentum, the Pontiac—Tarantella filly, ruled off with Dr. Street a year ago at Washington, subsequently sold to M. A. Coleman & Co. and brought West. Tarentum got into the hands of the Richings crew at Detroit, and through G. C. Goodell, as it is alleged, was brought to Chicago and used for Fantine after the latter had been used in one race for the purpose of identification. The plotters backed Fantine off the boards and won heavily at the track and in the poolrooms. Fantine was foaled in this country, but imported in utero with Rose of Lee or La Bouille, a French mare, who was in foal to Beau Brummel. La Bouille was imported by the Edgewater-Megibben stud, and her foal can be fully identified.

So far the Ideal Park officials have taken no action in the matter. Bets were all paid off, and if the horses were used as duplicates they are out of range at this time.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

F. Russell has been engaged to ride for Fleischmann & Son next season.

The latest Latonia accessions are Charley Rumrill with Zaldivar and the Villmar stable.

The Birmingham, Ala., Jockey Club has given up the idea of holding a fall meeting.

Requital will not race any more this season. He has gone to Brookdale for a long rest.

The Pimlico track of Baltimore will race under Jockey Club sanction from Nov. 5 to Nov. 14.

Anthony Comstock's "macers" were the figures in the recent raid on Joe & Allee Ullman's office in New York.

Riley Grannan talks of appealing to the courts for redress about his recent ruling off by the Jockey Club.

There does not seem to be a really good handicap horse in the Eastern field just now, unless it be Buckmassie.

Peep o'Day, a good Eastern three-year-old, has joined the army of cripples. He is a poor doer and generally delicate.

The Jockey Club has revoked Jockey Mart in's license and tabled the application of W. M. Wallace for a further hearing of his case.

The Blanton Stable horses will not race any more this season and the English division of the same stable is likely to remain American.

Mr. Belmont has given up his idea of an 1897 English campaign. All his cracks are on the list of cripples except Keenan, and he is a rogue.

The Louisville pool rooms are on top once more, as the grand jury failed to indict the proprietors. The identity of the latter could not be established.

Starter Flynn of the Jockey Club was displaced at Morris Park which opened yesterday by Supt. Frank Clark of the Coney Island Jockey Club.

Col. S. D. Bruce, of the Stud Book, has secured a temporary injunction against the Jockey Club and its official weekly publication, The Racing Calendar. Col. Bruce seeks to prevent the publication of matters covered by the Stud Book.

E. T. McConnell, banished by the Oakley officials in connection with the Linnette race, has sued for $10,000 and secured a temporary injunction against official interference with the horses in his stable.

Joe Murphy declares that the Turf Congress License Committee will allow Jockey Martin to ride in the West. This is legally in line. There is no agreement of any kind between the Turf Congress and Jockey Club.

The Erie Stable is to be dissolved, E. R. Beard retiring. Mr. Easton will sell the horses of the stable next Saturday. They include: Lazzarone, Nanki Pooh, Galilee, Applegate, St. Anthony, Religion and some ten more.

President Spreckels of the California Jockey Club announces that Jockey Martin cannot ride, or Riley Grannan book at the Ingleside track while under the Jockey Club's ban. The San Francisco Chronicle quotes him for these declarations.

Roller's latest disguise is a bicycle suit with a Byronic collared Jersey. It is one of the spectacularisms of Ideal Park, rivalled only by the Oakley trances. A map of the latest Rollerism and Coulter's dalliance with the limits of jersey is on the tapis.

The Horseman is one of the cheapest of cheap commentators on American racing, through the cross eyed avenue of don't-knowism. It's latest idea is that we haven't any good horses because Captive 105½ beat Requital 130 at Coney Island Sept. 1. Yet, before the race intelligence suggested Captive's victory.

The Eastern Hamilton Stable, owned by one Fred Oppenheimer, has been put out of the business by the Jockey Club. Its star was Zanone, and action was taken on charges made by A. J. Goldsborough, the stable's trainer. He alleged that Oppenheimer ordered him to "stuff" Zanone. The Goldsborough allegation was not sustained, but Oppenheimer was banished on a "general principle" ruling.

Tully Coulter adds the latest hard luck story to the long roll. Some time ago he bought a Belle Meade yearling for $500 from C. H. Gillock. It cost him $580 to land the colt at La Belle. Gene Leigh did not like the colt and so reported and out of some hit and miss correspondence came his consent to the St. Louis sale of last Tuesday. The colt brought $70. Thus Coulter lost $510 on a colt that he had never seen. On top of Chenille's defeat by Bombardon last week, fills the Coulter misfortune list.
